"The Marks of a Prince" by editor Brown was one of the most delightful lectures Albany has ever had the privilege of hearing. From the first word to the last the audience was intensely attentive. Humor and pathos were combined in a most pleasing degree.— Herald, Albany, Ga.

Mrs. James Brown has returned from Detroit with as large an assortment of ladies' headwear as was ever brought to Yale, and would inform the ladies of Yale and vicinity that the goods will be opened out and placed closed and an inventory of the stock has since been in progress. It is impossible to state at this time what will be done with the matter in the future as a meeting of the creditors has not yet been held. Mr. and Mrs. Ballentine are both in Flint where they have been called by the illness of their daughter Mrs. Henry Martin. All of Mr. Ballentine's old friends and neighbors fully sympathize with him in his misfortune.

placing the stone.

Last week Wednesday was the first day of spring and with it moving began. A. J. Harnden and wife have moved into their own house and Fred F. Francis and family now occupy the rooms vacated by them. We are informed that Eber Harnden has bought the Dooley house and lot and will move his family as soon as the house is vacant.

Elijah Powell Brown—the Ram's Horn Man—the "unique, epigrammatic, humorous and eloquent" lecturer, will deliver his celebrated lecture—"Royal Marks" or "Marks of a Prince" in Central Hall, Monday evening, April 1. Being an editor, Mr.
Brown sparkles all over with wit, and keeps his audience fascinated from first to last. Tickets 20 and 10 cents.

N. B. Herbert this week sold his grocery stock to Anthony Esper, of Croswell, and Moses Burns, Jr., of Fremont.
The firm name will be Esper & Burns.
As soon as possible a much larger stock of goods will be added. Mr. Burns will continue on the road for the Truesdell Marble Works of Port Huron for a time. These gentlemen come well recommended as shrewd, accommodating business men and we predict for them a continuance of the large trade enjoyed by Mr. Herbert.
Success to them. We have not learned what Mr. Herbert will go at but wish him abundant success in whatever he may tackle.

JAMES LIVINGSTON
JOHN P. LIVINGSTON
HARVEY TAPPAN

TO THE PUBLIC:

We have opened for business the new Yale State Bank in the stone front bank building erected by the late A. W. Ferguson.

This new financial institution is fully incorporated and capitalized as required by law and all provisions made by the Commissioner of the Banking Department for the protection of depositors who place their money in the institution have been fully complied with.

We are therefore in the field to do a legitimate banking business upon sound business principles. We are ready to loan any amount of money upon good joint or endorsed notes, good chattel security or upon real estate, all at reasonable rates and terms of payment. We are also ready to take up old real estate mortgages and renew loans at reasonable rates and terms.

We pay interest upon money deposited and have also a Savings Department in which any amount, from $1.00 up, may be deposited, a Savings Bank Book issued and interest paid upon book balances.

We invite those who contemplate having auction sales to come and see us with reference to cashing their sale notes, and to do so before the sale is advertised.

We ask an opportunity to do business with you and your friends and feel confident that we can do so in a manner that will be satisfactory to both parties.

We shall deem it a personal favor if you will take a little pains to let these facts be known to your friends and neighbors.

Thanking you in advance for this kindness

We remain yours truly,

YALE STATE BANK.

will make other improvements about his premises.

John D. Williams has a farm in the vicinity of Peck and moved with his family to that place on Wednesday.

The old Michaels' homestead in Em-met township has been transferred by the several heirs to Albert and Louise Michaels.

It is a little early yet but it is just as well for you to know that D. G. Williams is on hand as usual with a full stock of seeds.

Peerless Hives, No. 123, LOTM., will hold a special meeting in their hall this Friday evening. All members requested to be present.

John Leffler, of Speaker, has sold his farm in that township and purchased James Bright's house and lot on Mary Street where he will reside with his mother.

Yale Evening will give a grand ball on the evening of April 9, in Michaels' hall. Music will be furnished by John B. Graziadei's Neapolitan orchestra of Port Huron. This will be the first ball given by Yale Fire Companies, and will be the "swellest" of the season.

Harvey Tappan was at Brown City Wednesday attending the sale of stock of goods in the John Windsor bankruptcy proceedings. A sale of the real estate will be had soon. It is understood that Mr. Windsor has arranged to take the stock and will probably continue the business.

Otto Van Sickle, who was laboring with a slight attack of tonsillitis, was advised to use Chloride of Potash, which he purchased, thinking he might derive some benefit from it. It exploded in his pocket, setting fire to his clothing and frightening Otto nearly to death, but he has since recovered from the fright, and now claims he has fully recovered from the tonsillitis, but greatly mourns the loss of his $3.00 vest.

Rev. J. M. Dallas, a member of Saginaw Presbytery, will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit next Sunday, March 31st, preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. No service at Brockway.

At close of evening service a vote will be taken on calling a pastor. It is very important that all interested be present and vote at this meeting. The new church is nearing completion, and the session are anxious that the pulpit shall be occupied immediately after it is finished. The elders therefore request that all members and adherents of the church make all possible effort to be present.

in this week.

Remember Mrs. James Brown's grand opening next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Archie Williams and wife have decided to move to Chicago and will go there some time in April.

We notice by the Armada Graphic that Anna Parkinson is assisting in Mrs. E. Moorehouse's millinery.

John Hutton has added a neat office desk to the furniture of his hardware store. Myron Arnold is the builder.

Several members of the Yale Cornet Band gave some selections of their music on the street Monday evening.
It was greatly appreciated.

The social dance given by the young folks in Central Hall last Friday evening was fairly well attended and an enjoyable time was spent by all.

The work of making the excoyation for A. Windsor's barber shop is in progress and it will be only a short time before the foundation will be laid and the brick work commenced.

We are beginning to see the sure signs of spring in resurrected awnings, the smell of fresh paint, bundles of wall papers sent out from the different sellers of that commodity, and the loads of household furniture on the move. Oh yes, it's spring with its usual attendant of mud, thick, slimy and no telling how deep.

Murray, son of James C. McKenna, who enlisted in the Volunteer Infantry at Detroit, August 21, 1899, and has since been in the Philippines, surprised his friends by returning to Yale Tuesday evening. In conversation with him he said that when he landed at San Francisco a few weeks ago the time he had spent in the Philippines seemed like a dream and that although he suffered some hardships he fared very well. Murray looks hale and hearty and in his uniform presents a fine appearance. His friends all welcome him home feeling thankful that he escaped the fate of many a lad who did duty in the Philippines.

Several hundred delegates are in attendance at the Christian Endeavor convention being held at the auditorium in Port Huron this week. The addresses are fine and cover much ground in C. E. work which will be found very valuable and instructive to all members. The convention will result in much good. A strong delegation is present from Ludington, which is anxious for the convention next year. In the suburbs of Ludington there is a beautiful resort where it is expected the meeting will be held and a movement is on foot to change the date of the convention to sometime in July when the weather will probably be more favorable.
